Who we are.

Our story began in 1991 as a family-run business in Birmingham, driven by a vision to revolutionise the refractory industry. Over the years, our relentless commitment to delivering exceptional refractory solutions has propelled us into a leading global position.

Today, we stand at the forefront of the industry, cultivating partnerships with global steelmakers while continuously enhancing our facilities and investing in research and development for superior refractory solutions.

Our unwavering dedication to quality.

Mayerton’s legacy spans 30 years, rooted in a business ethos centred around respect and integrity.

This core purpose resonates throughout our operations, fostering a culture where doing right by our people is fundamental. We prioritise the growth and progression of our colleagues, offering a pathway to higher roles through professional development programmes.

Our vision is to be...

Innovating to shape a resilient and sustainable future for the refractory industry.

We do this by delivering on our mission to be...

The best refractory partner. Delivering innovative solutions, fostering strong collaborations and exceeding expectations with dedication and technical excellence.

And, in staying true to our values and behaviours, we ensure success.

Be resilient

This means...

We’re tenacious, tackling set backs head on with a can do attitude.

We see challenges as opportunities for creative solutions.

We learn from our experiences and bounce back even stronger.

Create collaboration

This means...

We’re at our best when we play to each other’s strengths.

We join forces to create even better solutions together.

We grow when we share knowledge and know that this gives us a real advantage.

Go the extra-heat

This means...

We take pride in delivering outstanding results.

We add value by paying attention to the little details that make a big difference.

We’re in the business of exceeding expectations, every experience with us will be driven by excellence.

Belong and thrive

This means...

We create a supportive and inclusive environment.

We build strong bonds and trusting relationships.

We listen to, value and appreciate each other.
